- Participation in various events organized to commemorate Granma yacht landing in 1956. In one of his speeches he said: “By this time, on 1st December, we were approaching the Cuban coasts to start a war we did not know how long it would last, on a mountain range where we had never been, but strongly determined to win or die.”
- A visit to houses built by the National Housing Institute (INAV, Spanish acronym) and a trip around “Manzana de Gómez” (Gómez Block) in Havana.
- Opening ceremony, presided over by Fidel, of the Third Cattle Raising, Agricultural and Trade Fair in Santiago de Cuba, where he delivered a speech.
